

Cookies Policy

This Website uses cookies, which are tiny files that are downloaded to your computer, to improve your experience. This document describes what information they gather, how we use it and why do we sometimes need to store these cookies. We will also share how you can prevent these cookies from being stored, however this will break certain elements of the Website's functionality, so please do not disable any cookie for this Website.

Once you access the Website, a banner will appear affirming that if you use our Website and any of its Services then you accept our Cookies Policy and acknowledge that you have read it and understood it. If you choose to continue browsing and using the Website by ignoring the banner, even without dismissing it, you are still accepting all of the cookies we set.

Disabling Cookies

Unfortunately, in most cases there are no industry standard options for disabling cookies without completely breaking the functionality and features they add to the Website. It is recommended to leave all the cookies enabled if you are not sure whether you need them or not. You can prevent the setting of cookies by adjusting the settings on your browser (see your browser "Help" page for discovering how to do this on the browser you use). Be aware that disabling cookies will affect the functionality of this Website and many other websites that you visit.

The Cookies We Set

- Account related cookies: If you create an account with us, then we will use cookies for the management of the signup process and general administration. These cookies will usually be deleted when you log out. However, in some cases, they may remain afterwards to remember your site preferences when logged out.
- Login related cookies: We use cookies when you are logged in so that we can remember this fact. This prevents you from having to log in every single time you visit a new page. These cookies are typically removed or cleared when you log out to ensure that you can only access restricted features and areas when logged in.
- Email newsletters related cookies: The Website offers newsletter or email subscription services and cookies may be used to remember if you are already registered and whether to show certain notifications which might only be valid to subscribed/unsubscribed users.
- Policies acceptance related cookies: The Website uses some cookies to remember the fact that you have dismissed the banner that notifies you that by accessing and using our Website then you are accepting all of our policies. Without this type of cookie, the banner will appear every single time you visit the Website.
- Orders processing related cookies: This site offers e-commerce or payment facilities, and some cookies are essential to ensure that your order is remembered between pages so that we can process it properly.
- Site preferences cookies: In order to provide you with a great experience on this Website we provide the functionality to set your preferences for how this site runs when you use it. In order to remember your preferences, we need to set cookies so that this information can be called whenever you interact with a page that is affected by your preferences. Some examples of this are the cookies used to remember the region in which you are buying, the chosen language, the theme of the Website, etc.

Third Party Cookies

In some special cases we also use cookies provided by trusted third parties. The following section details which third party cookies you might encounter through this site.

- Third party analytics are used to track and measure usage of this Website so that we can continue to produce engaging content. These cookies may track things such as how long you spend on the site or pages you visit which helps us to understand how we can improve the site for you.
- Payment processor related cookies are set up by Stripe (our payment processor) in order to remember payment intent information and some other relevant info related to purchasing stuff on our Website)
- We also use social media buttons and/or plugins on the Website that allow you to connect with your social network in various ways. For these to work the following social media sites including Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, LinkedIn, will set cookies through our site which may be used to enhance your profile on their site or contribute to the data they hold for various purposes outlined in their respective privacy policies.

More Information

Hopefully that has clarified things for you and as was previously mentioned if there is some cookie that you aren't sure whether you need it or not, it's usually better to leave it on.

For more general information on cookies, please read the Cookies Policy article.
